

How to log in

You can log in from any one of the following pages to check your loan status for items borrowed from the SLNSW through inter-library loan or multicultural bulk loan.

1. From the main SLNSW website (<https://www.sl.nsw.gov.au/>)

Click on Log in on the top right corner of the window.

2. From the SLNSW new catalogue

Click on Log in on the top right corner of the window.

3. From the SLNSW old catalogue

Click on Sign in on the top right corner of the window.

Signing in for the first time

1. You will need to know the email address that your library has registered with us. If you don't know the email address, please contact us.

IMPORTANT NOTE for libraries with multiple log-in accounts (for separate branches or to separate inter-library loans from bulk loans): Each account needs to have a unique email address.

2. Log in through the main SLNSW website or the NEW catalogue.
3. Click on Reset password.
The new system does not like passwords that are similar to the library name or email address.
Create a new password that does not include your library name or any part of your email address.

4. Once you have reset your password, you can log in with your email address and password.

Checking your loans

IMPORTANT NOTE: Your loan records online will include items that have previously been marked as Claimed Returned or Lost. You can contact us directly to obtain a more accurate list of your current loans.

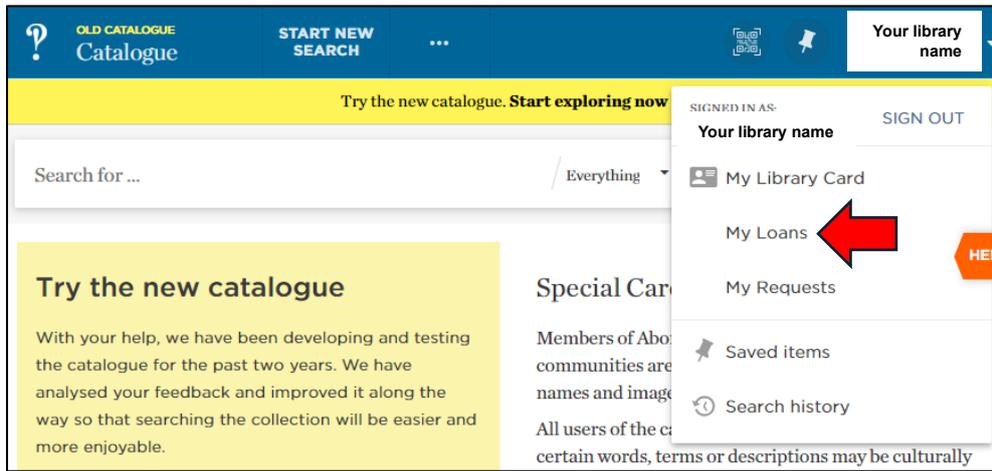

1. If you logged in from the main SLNSW website, you will see this window.
To get to your loans record, click on My Catalogue on the left-hand side of the page.

2. If you logged in from the new or old catalogues, click on your library name on the top right corner of the window and select Loans/ My Loans from the pull-down menu.
