IDEAS FOR PROMOTING THIS CATEGORY

ANAGRAMS OF BOOK TITLES

Anagrams might work well on social media, especially Instagram.

There are several online anagram generating websites.

Here's one that gives plenty of anagrams for any title or phrase you input:

I, rearrangement servant

(which is an anagram for Internet Anagram Server...)

[https://new.wordsmith.org/anagram/anagram.cgi?
anagram=Aster%27s+good+right+things&t=500&a=n](https://new.wordsmith.org/anagram/anagram.cgi?anagram=Aster%27s+good+right+things&t=500&a=n)

Anagram generators will give you loads of results, so search through the results and select something that will be suitable/appropriate for the age group, and hopefully something they will be able to solve.

If anagrams seem a bit hard to solve,
you can always offer a clue.

So, to help solve this anagram ...

Stingers Who

... give a clue about the book's characters or setting.

The clue for the above anagram is:

"It seems they have nothing in common except sport."

The solution to the anagram ....?

WORSE THINGS

(BY SALLY MURPHY)

There are also some advanced features at the anagram generating website.

Fine tuning results
Animating results

YAAAS!

Let's take a quick look!

Anagrams could also be used in an old-fashioned, analogue way.

Print out an activity sheet with anagrams, related clues and the solutions in small print upside down at the bottom of the page or overleaf.

CREATE AN ONLINE JIGSAW PUZZLE OF A BOOK COVER

I've used a website called Jigsaw Explorer.
On the home page scroll down and you'll find a link

Create a custom puzzle and share it or add it to your own website

A Jigsaw Explorer Jigsaw Puzzle

This jigsaw puzzle is presented within Jigsaw Explorer's premium jigsaw puzzle web app. Anyone can use this web app to play their own photos as jigsaw puzzles, or choos...

 Jigsaw Explorer

I've used images of book covers directly from the CBCA website.

You can choose a background colour, and the end user can customise the number of pieces for the puzzle.

Make sure you give credit to the author, illustrator and publisher, there is the option to do this when you are creating the online puzzle, underneath where you add the URL for the image.

Thank you!
