

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander

CULTURE CLUB

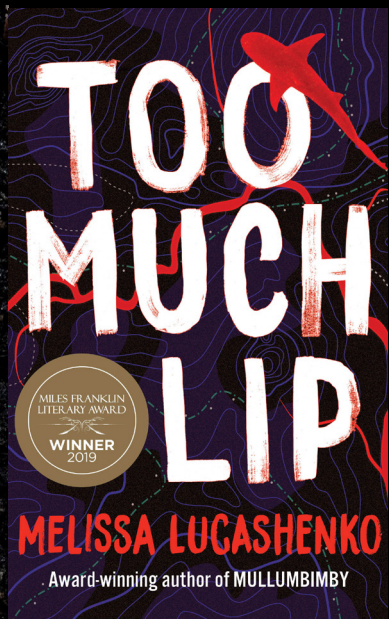

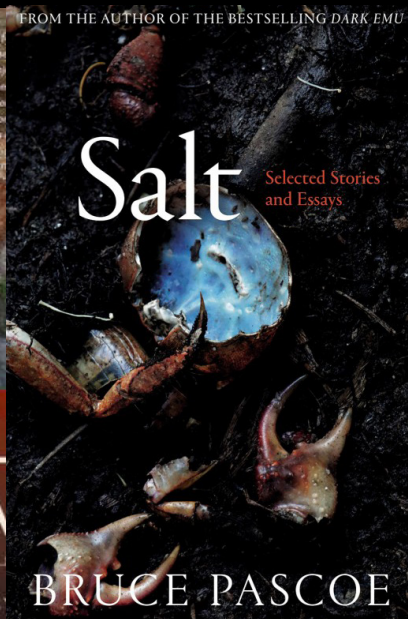

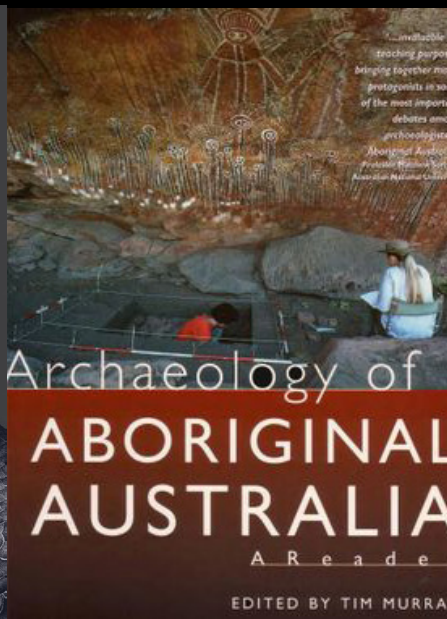

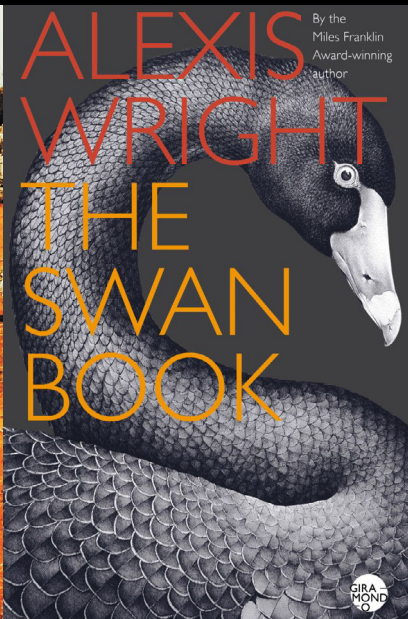

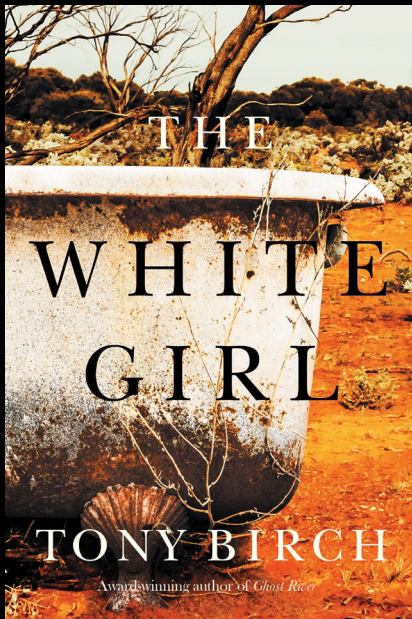

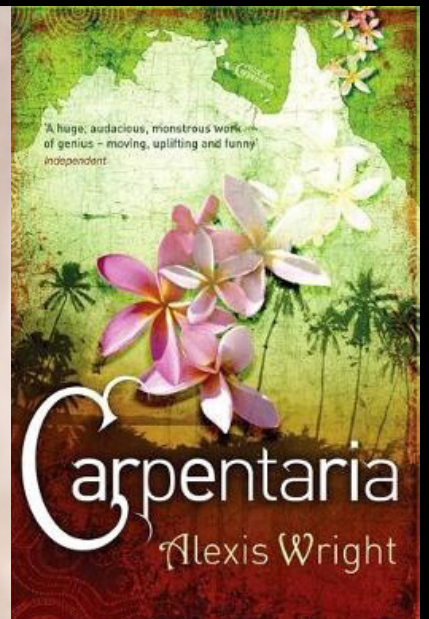

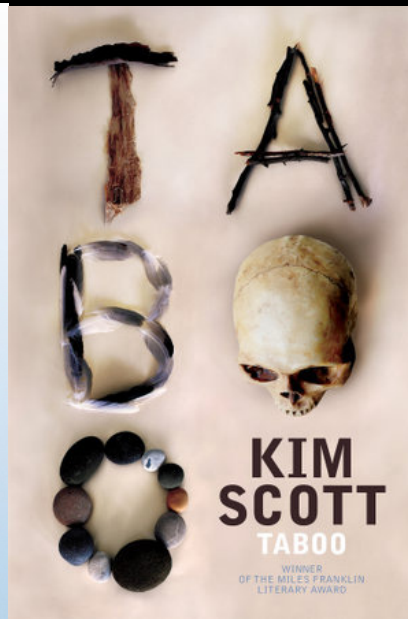

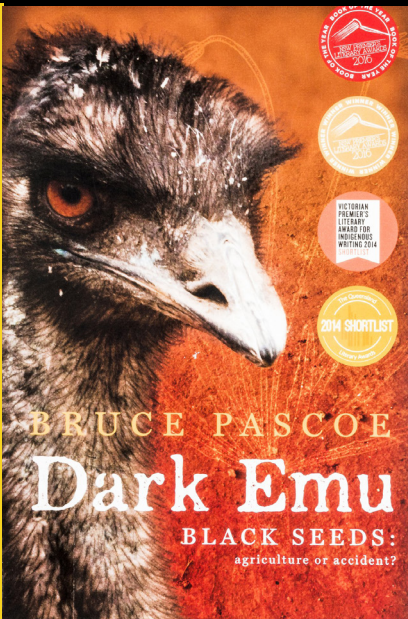

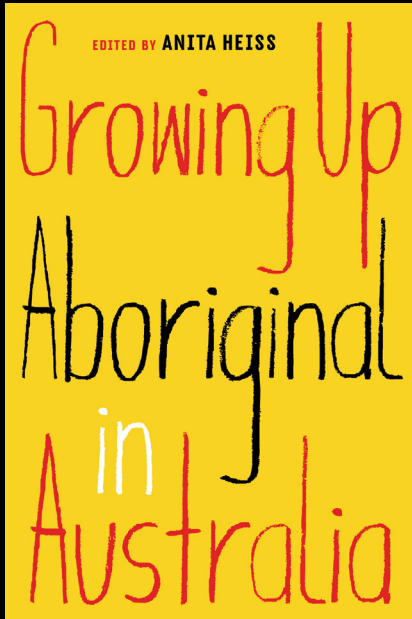

Fridays 6 - 7 pm

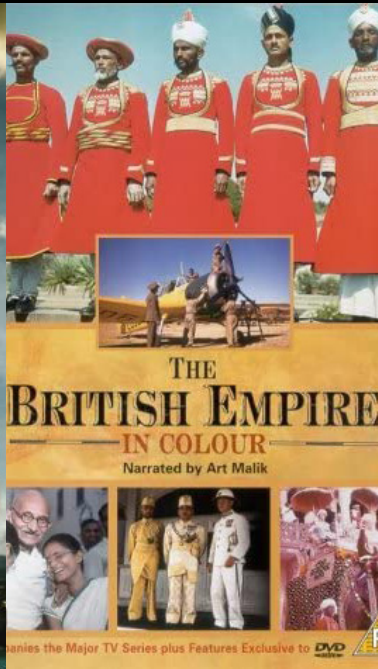

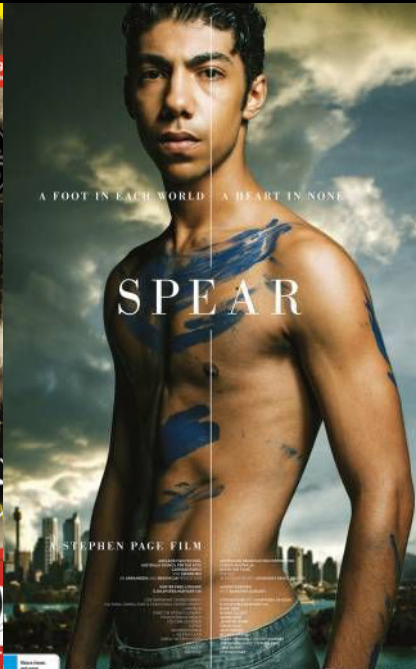

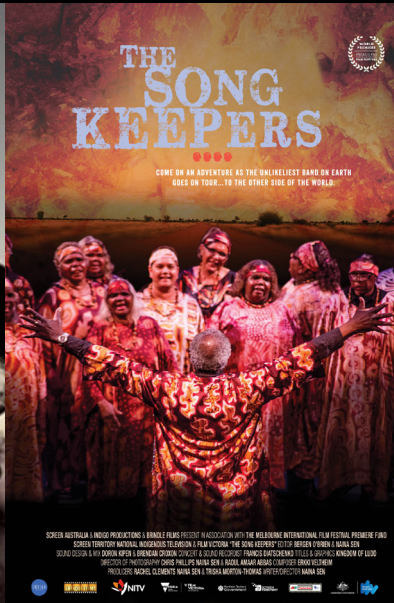

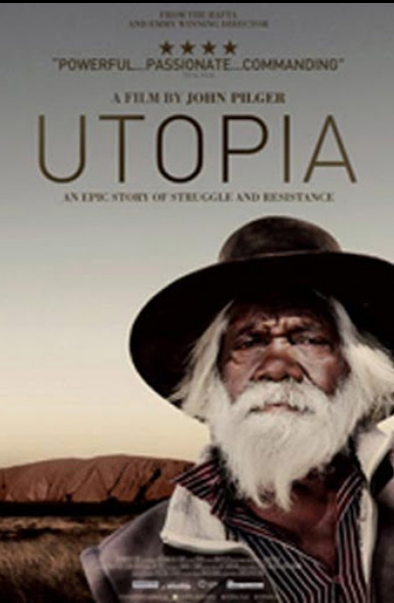

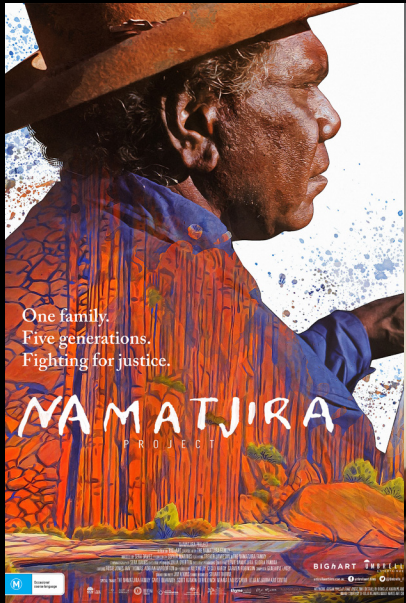

Hosted by Leyla Bhathela

Acknowledgement of Country

Waverley Council would like to acknowledge the Bidjigal and Gadigal people, who traditionally occupied the Sydney Coast. We would also like to acknowledge Aboriginal Elders both past and present.

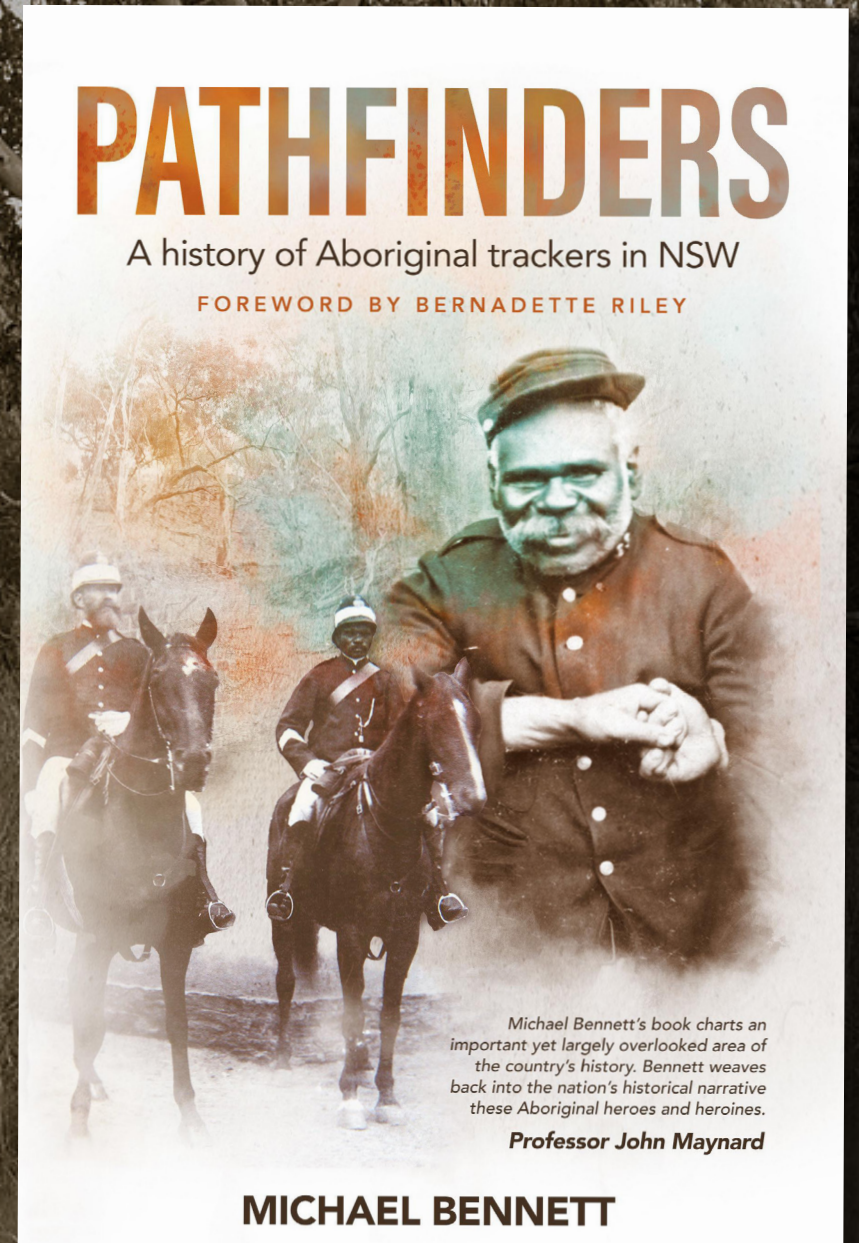

“

The history of trackers in NSW and the struggles they faced to find a place in wider society is the history of all Aboriginal people. They were pathfinders in more than one sense.

”

Michael Bennett

PATHFINDERS

A history of Aboriginal trackers in NSW

FOREWORD BY BERNADETTE RILEY

Michael Bennett's book charts an important yet largely overlooked area of the country's history. Bennett weaves back into the nation's historical narrative these Aboriginal heroes and heroines.

Professor John Maynard

MICHAEL BENNETT

“The Missing Man: From the outback to Tarakan”. It is the powerful story of Len Waters, the Royal Australian Air Force's only WWII Aboriginal fighter pilot” by Peter Rees

Len Waters, 1940s

It's important "our young ones grow up with a solid cultural foundation and become strong with who they are and where they belong" which will put them on the right path in achieving any goal they set in the future.

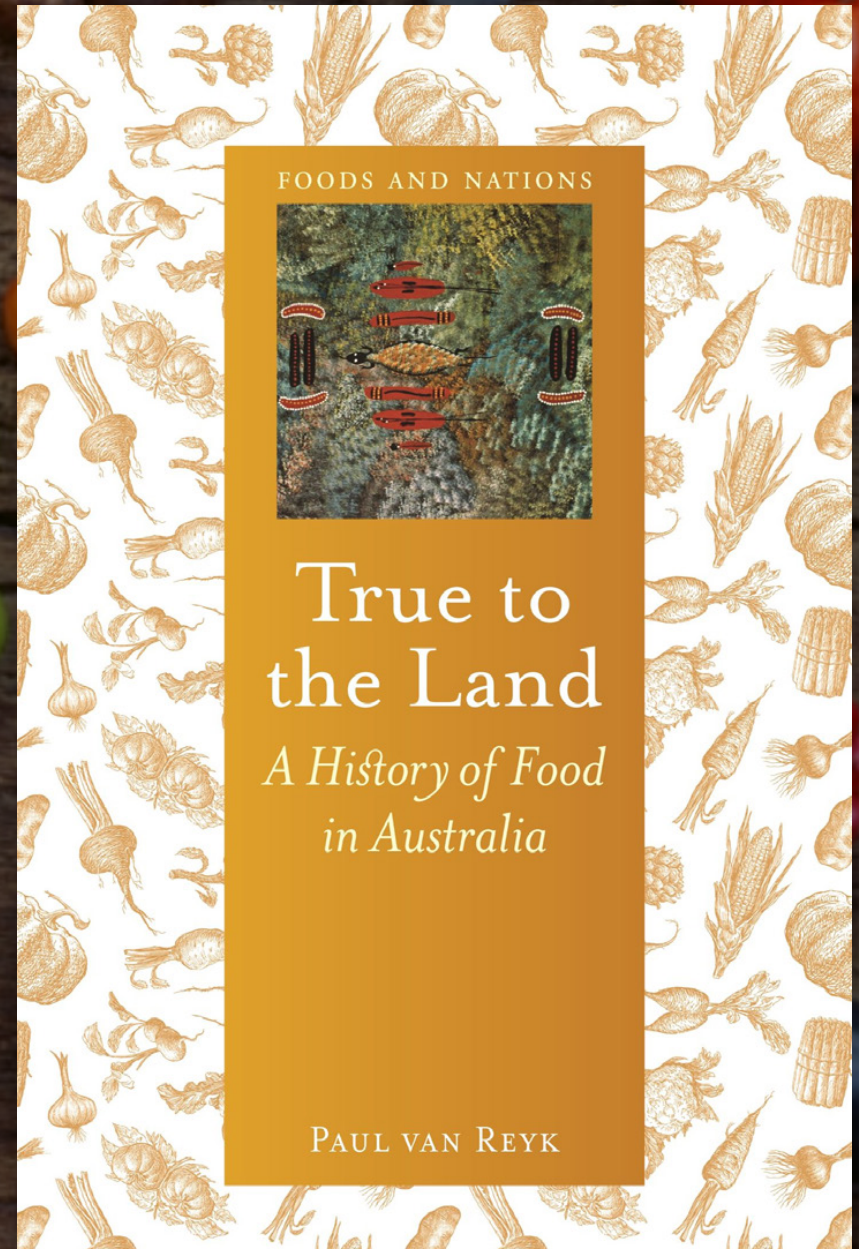

Ray Ingrey, Chairman of the Gujaga Foundation.

'House'. Arthur Collingridge, c. 1890. Photo courtesy John Carr, La Perouse.

Paul van Reyk

Aboriginal aquaculture: the Brewarrina fish traps

